
PRIVACY STATEMENT FOR LEXIFY PLATFORM

Last Updated: 8 September 2026

This Privacy Statement provides general information on the processing of certain below specified personal data by Lexify Oy and its employees, partners and affiliates (“LEXIFY”) in connection with the LEXIFY Platform (the “Platform”).

1. Data Controller Contact Information

Data controller name: Lexify Oy

E-mail: support@lexify.online

2. Personal Data

The following personal data may be collected and processed in connection with the Platform:

- Name, telephone number, e-mail address
- Job title, company
- User account ID & password
- Log information: log-in and log-out time, timestamp of actions taken within the Platform, technical logs of the operations of the platform (e.g. error codes) which may be linked with your User ID
- Feedback you provide to LEXIFY
- Content you submit to the Platform, including the content of LEXIFY Requests and Offers and any information you provide to Lexi, LEXIFY’s AI-assisted drafting feature (“Lexi”), which may include personal data relating to you or to third parties
- Invoice data uploaded to the Platform, including the names, contact details and other personal data of individuals identified on such invoices

LEXIFY may also combine this personal data with business related information, like information about the general business relationship you have with LEXIFY. Please see more information on the Privacy Statement for LEXIFY Business Partners at www.lexify.online.

3. The Purposes of the Processing

Your personal data is collected and processed:

- I) To manage user rights of the Platform
- II) To manage operability and security of the Platform
- III) To enable troubleshooting and incident resolving
- IV) To enable development of the Platform and enhancement of the user experience within the Platform
- V) To enable communications between you and the other Platform users, including but not limited to necessary communications relating to sending out the requests to relevant service providers, and providing the relevant service provider offers back to the relevant requester
- VI) To enable LEXIFY to expand and maintain the Platform ecosystem
- VII) For service and product development purposes (for these purposes LEXIFY strives to use aggregated or otherwise anonymized data where possible)
- VIII) To ensure proper use of the Platform, and the passwords and/or username granted for you for accessing the Platform (the “Credentials”)
- IX) To ensure compliance with the Terms & Conditions for the Platform (the “T&C”) and potential other agreements that govern your use of the Platform
- X) To enable performance of the T&C
- XI) To provide Lexi and to generate draft LEXIFY Requests on the basis of the information you submit to it

LEXIFY may further aggregate and anonymize the personal data to use it for business analytics purposes. Content you submit to Lexi may be used in anonymized form to improve and train AI functionalities and models used exclusively within the Platform, including Lexi. However, such content is not used to train any third-party or publicly available artificial intelligence models. For the avoidance of doubt, at no time will your content be made available to other users of the Platform as part of any AI training, model improvement or AI-generated output.

Processing is necessary for performance of the T&C and for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by LEXIFY. The legitimate interests consist of the above-mentioned processing purposes I-XI listed in this Section 3.

As allowed or required by applicable laws, LEXIFY may use personal data in legal and administrative proceedings or for regulatory compliance, e.g. for fulfilling a request for a resolution or information by authorities, in submissions for court or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

If you do not want to provide personal data as listed above or later request the personal data to be deleted, this may result in a situation where you no longer can access or use the Platform.

4. Source(s) from which Personal Data Originate(s)

The personal data is obtained from you directly when you register to the Platform and is generated through your use of the Platform.

5. Transfers of Personal Data

The Platform is hosted by an external service provider who may have access to the personal data, but only for the purposes of providing hosting or other services related to the Platform. From time to time, LEXIFY may use also other external parties to e.g. update the Platform or provide IT support or development related to the Platform, and for these purposes transfer the personal data to such service providers. LEXIFY shall limit the possibility of such external parties to use personal data only to what is necessary for the performance of the respective services.

Where you use Lexi, the content you submit to Lexi is transmitted to a third-party provider of artificial intelligence services for the purpose of providing Lexi to you. Such provider processes that content solely on LEXIFY's behalf and in accordance with LEXIFY's instructions, and does not use it for its own purposes.

Due to technical and practical requirements, some of the personal data may be processed also outside the country where the Platform user resides (including outside EU/EEA) by LEXIFY's subcontractors. LEXIFY ensures that there is a legal basis for such transfers, and you can get more information about the data transfers by contacting LEXIFY.

The transfer of Personal Data between LEXIFY and a subcontractor for purposes of performing the services, does not constitute the selling, renting, releasing, disclosing, disseminating, making available, transferring, or otherwise communicating orally, in writing, or by electronic means the personal data for monetary or other valuable consideration.

As a requestor, your name, e-mail address, job title and/or company information may be revealed to the relevant service providers for purposes of making the offer.

As a service provider, your name, e-mail address, job title and company information are revealed to the requestors to whom you submit offers.

6. Retention Period of the Personal Data

The personal data will be stored as long as you have access rights to the Platform, or the data is otherwise needed for the abovementioned purposes. The log data may be stored for up to one (1) year after the date it was generated. Invoice data uploaded to the Platform will be stored for as long as it is needed for the purposes described in this Privacy Statement, and in any event for no longer than ten (10) years from the end of the calendar year in which the invoice was issued.

7. Data Subjects' Rights

You have a right to review the personal data collected on you, right to have incorrect personal data corrected and right to request deletion of personal data. You may also have a right to object to processing based on a specific individual circumstance and request data portability and right to object to marketing. You may use these rights by contacting LEXIFY via support@lexify.online

In the event you have concerns or remarks regarding the legality of personal data processing, you may lodge a complaint with a competent local data protection supervisory authority or pursue enforcement of your legal rights in jurisdictions without such data protection supervisory authority.
